

Unit Award Scheme

111138 INTRODUCTION TO ANIMAL CARE

In successfully completing this unit, the Learner will have	Evidence needed demonstrated the ability to 1 identify at least two key safety rules when caring for three animals kept as pets	Student completed work
2 identify and describe the housing requirements and benefits for three animals kept as pets	Student completed work
3 identify and describe a good and bad diet for at least three animals kept as pets	Student completed work
4 explain the importance of meeting the needs of three animals kept as pets, eg feeding, cleaning and exercise	Student completed work
5 identify and describe at least three items of equipment used in the care of a pet animal	Student completed work shown knowledge of

In successfully completing this unit, the Learner will have		Evidence needed
6	at least three aspects of pet animal behaviour and how to respond to each type of pet behaviour	Student completed work
7	at least three aspects of human behaviour towards pet animals and why these are important	Student completed work
8	at least three factors which constitute responsible pet ownership and how owners can demonstrate each of these	Student completed work experienced
9	listening to and watching a demonstration of animal care	Summary sheet
10	looking after and taking care of at least three animals kept as pets over at least six weeks.	Summary sheet

All outcomes recorded on an AQA Summary Sheet (25.0 KB)

Approved 24 October 2018

Level - Level One